

Stephanie A. Wilkins
President
PharmaConsult US, Inc.

Education

Pennsylvania State University
Bachelor of Architectural Engineering
1978 - 1983

Registrations

Professional Engineer
Pennsylvania

Affiliations

Member ISPE

ISPE Committee
Chairperson of the year in 2001.

Published Material

A Technical Review of Isolators,
Pharmaceutical
Engineering, 1998

Seminars Given

Course leader for the Web Based Project
Management
Containment course
for ISPE

Stephanie has over 20 years of professional experience in project management, engineering and validation solutions for the pharmaceutical industry. She has managed, designed and validated facilities and systems for research, development, pilot plants and manufacturing facilities for the pharmaceutical and biotech industries. Currently, she is focused on the administration, marketing and management of PharmaConsult US, Inc

PharmaConsult US, Inc Bridgewater, NJ

Provides project management support to all projects carried out by the company. In addition, provides marketing and administrative support for the daily operations of the company.

Schering Plough Lafayette, NJ

Conceptual and preliminary design for a toxicology facility. The project team included site planning, civil engineering, design architecture, space planning, mechanical engineering, structural engineering and electrical engineering.

Amersham Pharmacia Biotech Piscataway, NJ

Full design services from conceptual design to post construction services for a retrofit of 120,000 square foot warehouse to house administration, research and development functions.

Pfizer Groton, CT

Conceptual and preliminary design for a new pilot plant. The team consisted of design architecture, site planning and civil engineering.

Proctor and Gamble

Norwich, NY

Full design services from conceptual design to construction support for the renovation of a laboratory wing to house radiopharmaceutical laboratories. The design team consisted of architecture, structural engineering, site planning, civil engineering, mechanical engineering and electrical engineering.

Professional Experience

Stephanie A. Wilkins
President
PharmaConsult US, Inc.

Bristol Myers Squibb
Hopewell, NJ

Retrofit of existing 90,000 square feet petrochemical laboratories to house biopharmaceutical laboratories. Project was fast track/phased construction with one year from beginning of design to beginning of move in.

Merck
West Point, PA

Schematic design through construction administration and validation for the relocation of the biochemistry/clinical processing laboratory. The project included a cGMP suite for aseptic processing for the preparation of clinical lots of hepatitis vaccine.

J&J Intervention Systems
Warren, NJ

Prepared validation master plan documents and protocols for critical areas. Managed the design modifications required to meet the protocol requirements.